PARENT TIME

(Especially for baby
& toddler parents)

As you hold your bundle of joy, it is hard to imagine him walking and talking and eventually walking away from you. Babies and toddlers are so dependent on your care that it is almost impossible to imagine a time when they won't be with you.

That time is coming and faster than you think. There will be a time when they walk into elementary school and then high school and maybe college—a time when they won't depend on you to make decisions. They will be making them on their own.

Because you won't always be there, you need to begin now to teach them about the One who will always be there. Jesus will be there, and Jesus can do anything. Introduce your child to Jesus now so he can depend on Him later. We're not just raising children. We're raising adults.

Take some time this month to visit www.OrangeParents.org and listen to Carey Nieuwhof's vision for raising adults on Parent Link Live.
